RUSSIA NEEDS FUNDS

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR THIS YEAR GREATLY EXCEED EXPECTED RECEIPTS.

COST OF WAR WITH JAPAN

NEW BUDGET STATEMENT SHOWS THAT IT IS SLIGHTLY OVER A BILLION DOLLARS.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 12.—The budget statement for 1906, which has just been issued, shows that it will be necessary to raise $240,500,000 by credit operations to balance the estimated receipts and expenditures. The latter include $202,500,000 for the liquidation of the expenses of the Russo-Japanese war, the repatriation of the troops in the far East and the reduction of the army to a peace footing. For the first time the total cost of the war, $1,050,000,000, is revealed. The credit operations to balance the budget, includes the recent authorization of $200,000,000 in treasury bonds, $75,000,000 of which have already been used to renew the Mendelssohn loan, and the credit of $160,000,000 which Former Finance Minister Kokovich is now negotiating in Paris. The primary object of the latter, the proceeds of which will be retained in Paris, is understood to be the maintenance of the stability of the rouble. The budget statement does not dodge the prevailing conditions in Russia. It is pointed out specifically that the receipts from nearly all sources have been scaled down and, moreover, it is stated that if the disorders in the interior do not cease there may be some branches of revenue on which it will be impossible to count. The budget also deals frankly with the heavy drain on the gold reserve of the state bank balances abroad, which have fallen $152,500,000 in the three months preceding Jan. 1. During the last ten days of the year the gold reserve was reduced by $50,500,000, while the issue of paper currency was increased by $30,000,000.

To Rescue Business Interests. The increase of paper issued, the statement says, was made by the bank in an effort to come to the rescue of the business interests, which were almost paralyzed and which had been refused loans by private banks owing to the panicky conditions and to the reduction of the foreign credits of houses with connections abroad. The statement concludes with the following, addressed to the emperor, which was evidently penned by Count Witte: "These facts and figures submitted to your majesty show that the present situation of Russian finances is none too favorable. This state of things is the result of the war and of the troubles which followed. These troubles are of a temporary character and it is fair to assume that they will be ameliorated in the near future. Conditions favorable for the appearance of fruitful work must be perceived even amidst the gloom of the present crisis. With each day the popular conscience must be awakened more and more to a realization of the true needs of the fatherland. "The awakening of these social forces has a sure guarantee in the independence granted to the Russian nation by your august will and in the equality before the law which has been assured to all your majesty's subjects."

TO START DRAINAGE WORK. James J. Hill Offers to Pay a Third of the Cost. Grand Forks, N. D., Jan. 12.—President James J. Hill of the Great Northern railway gave a practical demonstration during the afternoon of his interest in drainage when he offered to pay a third of the cost of getting the work started right. "If it costs $30,000," he said, "count on me for $10,000, or whatever the cost is." The announcement was greeted with great applause by those attending the drainage convention here. Mr. Hill was introduced at the meeting by Chairman J. L. Cassel of Grafton as "the father of drainage, the man who paved the way to the coast and who opened markets across the sea."

Municipal League Adjourns. St. Paul, Jan. 12.—The officers of the Minnesota Municipal and Commercial league were re-elected at the closing session of the league. They are: L. A. Rosing, Cannon Falls, president; Leslie Welter, Moorhead, vice president; W. C. Webber, Rochester, secretary, and J. Ebbjorsson, Litchfield, treasurer. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Duluth.

VICTIM OF WEST HOTEL FIRE.

Mrs. Spiesberger of Chicago Expires at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Jan. 12.—Mrs. S. E. Spiesberger of Chicago, one of the most seriously injured victims of the West hotel fire, died at the city hospital shortly after 2 o'clock p. m. The death of Mrs. Spiesberger was made peculiarly sad by the heroic efforts which were made by the hospital staff to keep her alive until her father and two physicians could arrive from Chicago. They reached the city in time to see her and hope was inspired by their presence, as the woman rallied for a few moments. She soon sank into unconsciousness, however, from which she never recovered. Her death makes the ninth fatality from the fire. W. S. Amsden, superintendent of the Minneapolis and Northern Elevator company, has a fighting chance for his life. He rallied somewhat at noon and the hospital attendants look for his recovery.

Mary Rowan, maid at the hotel, who was overcome by smoke and heat, has regained consciousness and will probably recover. Benjamin Swisky of Chicago, who is in the Swedish hospital, will recover. He is badly burned, particularly about the face.

Mrs. B. D. Barlow, who is in St. Barnabas hospital, will recover. She was badly bruised and cut but not internally injured by her fall.

Gordon G. Sapp of Chicago will recover. He is at St. Barnabas hospital.

Besides these there are many others who were injured more or less seriously and who will all recover.

HALF A MILLION LOSS

WORKS OF CARNEGIE STEEL COMPANY AT GREENVILLE, PA., DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Greenville, Pa., Jan. 12.—Fire starting from an explosion destroyed the works of the Carnegie Steel company here at night, entailing a loss of between $500,000 and $600,000. Two men were burned, but not fatally. They are:

Thomas Lewis, a fireman, and M. Stuenkel.

A flue in the boiler of a heading furnace blew out, deluging the furnace below, which exploded, scattering fire in all directions. The force of the explosion was so great that fire balls were lodged in the roof of the ten-inch finishing department and the flames spread rapidly. Within ten minutes after the explosion there was no hope of saving what is known as the old mill. A half hour later a strong wind swept the flames into the new tandem mill, shipping sheds and boilerhouses. The plant is out of the city water district and hose had to be laid a long distance and availed nothing against the acres of flame. Much of the machinery will not be hopelessly destroyed and the foundations, hot bed, etc., are uninjured. The loss of product will be serious, as the plant was running day and night on high grade work. Four hundred men are thrown out of work.

The mill was originally built in 1871, was operated by the late Peter L. Kimberly for years and passed into the Carnegie company's hands a few years ago.

DECATUR ON THE STAND.

Midshipman Accused of Hazing Testifies in His Own Behalf.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 12.—The last stages, except the argument of counsel and of the judge advocate, were completed during the afternoon in the case of Midshipman Stephen Decatur, Jr., charged before a naval court-martial with hazing. The accused occupied the stand for about three-quarters of an hour and his testimony is regarded as having strengthened his case. Decatur denied that he hazed either Church or C. W. Mailley.

COPPER MINE ON FIRE.

Three Men Met Death in Shaft at Calumet, Mich.

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 12.—The Tamarack copper mine, the deepest in the world, is on fire with three men missing and almost certain to have met death in a horrible form, half to three-quarters of a mile below the earth's surface. Shaft No. 2, where the fire was discovered, has been sealed over at the surface with heavy timbers tamped with clay and also shaft No. 3. It may become necessary to close shaft No. 5 also to smother the flames. The mine contains several hundred million feet of timber, largely pine, and unless the access of air was shut off by hermetically sealing all openings the property would be damaged to the extent of many millions.

Memorial to Harper.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—A great university chapel as a memorial to President Harper has been practically decided upon by the board of trustees of the University of Chicago.

SLAIN BY CATTLEMEN

TWO SHEPHERDERS KILLED BY MASKED AND MOUNTED RAIDERS IN UTAH.

SHEEP CLUBBED TO DEATH

ENTIRE FLOCK EXTERMINATED AND OUTFITS OF THE HERDERS DESTROYED.

Evanston, Wyo., Jan. 12.—Masked and mounted raiders, presumed to be cattlemen, at night attacked the camps of two Utah flock masters near Burnt Fork, close to the Utah-Wyoming line, shot down A. N. Carsite and Robert Allen, herders, slaughtered the sheep and burned the camp wagons and outfits.

A camp mover who escaped the bullets of the raiders witnessed the battle from the brush. The raiders numbered about twenty and approached the camps at a gallop, firing a fusillade of shots into the wagons. The herders were killed at the first fire. It required less than half an hour to club the sheep to death and burn the outfits.

Notices of warning to other flock masters were left with the bodies of the dead herders.

Sheepmen are indignant and threaten to get even, and more trouble is anticipated.

The range on which the outrage was committed has long been in dispute and the sheepmen have been frequently ordered away.

ORDERS MAY GO UNFULFILLED.

Unless Congress Grants Emergency Appropriation.

Washington, Jan. 12.—"Unless congress speedily grants the emergency appropriation of $135,000 requested by me for additional inspectors and microscopists it is probable that over $50,000 worth of orders for American pork and beef products placed by German dealers will go unfulfilled."

This statement was made by Secretary Wilson during the day. Anticipating the high rates of duty on products emanating from the United States imposed by the new German tariff which becomes effective March 1, and Germany at the present time being in urgent need of meats supplies, Secretary Wilson says that German dealers have flooded the packinghouses of this country with orders. In speaking of this condition of affairs he referred to recent strictures upon his action in creating what was stated to be a deficiency of $135,000, the amount asked by him in alleged violation of the statute on this subject enacted during the last congress.

"These statements," he said, "do me a grave injustice and do not credit me with trying to relieve our packers from the position in which they have been placed, by reason of a lack of proper inspecting force."

He declared he was asking only for an emergency appropriation to meet the conditions which an enormously increased business of the past few months had created.

"I am strongly in favor of having the packers pay all the expenses of inspections," continued the secretary, "such inspections to be under governmental supervision, of course. In fact they voluntarily have expressed a willingness to do this and in the present instance have offered to do it, but there is no law by which such an arrangement can be made. Such a procedure would not only save the government a vast sum of money but would prevent just such a state of affairs as exists today."

SIX CHILDREN INJURED.

Heavily Loaded Bobsleds Collide at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 12.—Six children were severely injured, one possibly fatally, in a collision between two heavily loaded bobsleds here at night. The children were sliding down adjoining hills and their sleds crashed at the bottom while running at a high rate of speed. The injured are:

Teresa Griffin, right leg broken above knee, compound fracture below the knee, may die of shock; Dale Hyland, leg broken in three places; Mamie Hyland, ankle badly sprained; Will McGrain, head severely cut; Homer Benecoter, cut about forehead; Earl King, flesh torn from calf of leg and ankle twisted.

Against Hamilton Bill.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The Northwestern delegation, notably those of Minnesota, Wisconsin and North Dakota, present practically a solid front against the Hamilton bill proposing joint statehood for the four territories in the South. Forty Republicans are opposed to the bill.

The girls Classes meet

tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock

Great interest is being taken these days as each young lady is quite anxious to win the prize. The competition began last week and will continue through January and February. Tomorrow will be an opportune time to have the Miss join and surely nothing she can enter into will be of more benefit to her than to learn how to ply the needle successfully and artistically. It costs her nothing to secure the benefits of the class. All we ask is that she purchase the materials of us.

Saturday the last day of the Clearance Sale

It has been a great success. Many have saved themselves dollars in the purchasing of such materials as we have offered. Tomorrow will be the last day and a splendid selection yet remains.

Not the least of these bargains aer the coat bargains. A great opportunity to save dollars here.

HILL'S TRIAL NEARLY ENDED.

Defense Asks That Case Be Taken From the Jury.

Philadelphia, Jan. 12.—The trial of John W. Hill, former chief of the filtration bureau, which has been in progress for nearly two weeks, has practically ended. The defense closed with the examination of several engineers from this and other cities, who gave expert testimony. The commonwealth offered no evidence in rebuttal and Former District Attorney Graham, principal counsel for Mr. Hill, asked that the case be taken out of the hands of the jury. He claimed that the commonwealth had failed to make out a case against the defendant and that there was nothing for the jury to decide.

Judge Audenried finally announced that he would reserve his decision.

Former Chief Hill was charged with forgery and falsifying records for the benefit of the contracting firm of D. J. McNichol & Co., of which Former State Insurance Commissioner Israel W. Durham, local Republican leader, was a member. The arrest of Mr. Hill was made at the instigation of Mayor Weaver during his crusade for good government.

PRISONERS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

Fire in a Factory Next to the Jail Responsible.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 12.—A fire that broke out in a peanut factory next to the city jail here at night resulted in the escape of nine prisoners. The 275 inmates of the jail were marched to the police barracks but when that structure was threatened were again transferred, this time to the courthouse. When a count was taken nine were missing.

Mayor Riddick at once called out four companies of the Seventy-first regiment, Virginia national guard, and the militiamen are now guarding the prisoners. Among the men who escaped is Solomon Greenstein, a federal prisoner charged with perjury.

The fire entirely destroyed the factory and its falling walls crashed upon a foundry, wrecking it. The east wing of the jail was damaged. The proximity of the central powerhouse to the fire caused the shutting off of all lights and power, leaving the city in darkness for several hours. Ten thousand bags of peanuts and a quantity of machinery are included in the loss, which will amount to $100,000.

PAT CROWE INDICTED.

Accused of Complicity in Street Car Hold Up in Iowa.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Jan. 12.—Pat Crowe was indicted here during the day by the Pottawattamie county grand jury for alleged complicity in a street car hold up of July 2, 1905, when about $60 was secured from two conductors and a motorman. Arthur Levi, a younger man, is indicted on the same charge with Crowe. The principal evidence against both men was given by Mrs. Lillian Dalton, a South Omaha woman, who overheard a conversation between them and saw them counting money on the morning after the robbery. Other witnesses testified that Crowe in company with Levi was at a saloon in Council Bluffs an hour or two before the robbery.

Crowe is now in the hands of the Omaha authorities awaiting trial in February for robbery in connection with the Cudahy kidnapping case. A requisition from Governor Cummins of Iowa is in the hands of Governor Mickey of Nebraska, who will not act on it till the Omaha case is disposed of.

PRESIDENT MORALES WOUNDED.

Troops of General Caceres Trying to Capture the Fugitive.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, Jan. 12.—Advices received here from Monte Christi, Santo Domingo, say the Dominican gunboat Independencia, which declared in favor of the fugitive president, General Morales, cannot take any further part in the hostile operation; because she is without coal and cannot leave Monte Christi.

General Morales, the advices add, was wounded recently in an encounter with the troops of the temporary president, General Caceres.

A detachment of General Caceres' troops is on the track of General Morales and it is said he probably will be captured.

FORGED MUNICIPAL BONDS.

Allegation Made in Connection With Cleveland Concern.

Cleveland, Jan. 12.—The bankers' committee which is investigating the affairs of the banking and brokerage firm of Denison, Prior & Co., which closed its doors following the suicide of L. W. Prior on Tuesday, made the following authorized statement late in the afternoon: "The examination of the books of the firm has not yet proceeded far enough to make any complete statement possible. Enough has been learned, however, to warrant the committee in stating that it is forced to believe that the firm of Denison Prior & Co., is insolvent, but to what extent we cannot as yet say.

"We are also convinced that a number of municipal bonds have been forged." The bankers' committee gave no intimation whatever as to the amount or value of the forged municipal bonds or where they were placed, or how used. It is understood, however, that they were largely used in connection with extensive deals on the New York Stock Exchange.

Costly Edifice Planned. Baltimore, Jan. 12.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association at night it was decided to build here, at a cost of $500,000, what it is intended shall be the finest central building in this country. The money is to be raised by popular subscription.

C. M. SPRAGUE has announced his willingness to become a candidate for lieutenant governor subject to the approval of the republican state convention. The gentleman lives at Sauk Centre, the home of Frank Eddy, and if an agreement has been reached between the two gentlemen this means that the latter is not a candidate for governor this year.

The Wadena Pioneer-Journal remarks that "we don't hear anything now concerning the opposition to Congressman Buckman. It is possible that the people in the Sixth district who do not appreciate what a valuable congressman "Buck" is have discovered that the majority of republicans realize that they have a good representative, and are therefore not disposed to swap horses at this stage of the journey."

The papers of the twin cities make the announcement that a thorough investigation of the West hotel horror will be made by the authorities and the blame placed where it belongs. That is little comfort to the relatives and friends of those who lost their lives in the terrible catastrophe. If the authorities would see that means were taken to prevent these accidents it would be more to their credit. An ounce of prevention is worth more than a pound of cure.

titled "The Golden Valley" soon to be given by the Ladies' Musical Club of Brainerd. The "Cantata" is a description in song, of a very delightful romance which takes place in the "Golden Valley" at the time of the First Crusade.

WINNEBAGO INDIANS DYING.

South Dakota Red's Driven Insane by Mexican Beans.

Omaha, Jan. 11.—A World-Herald special from the Winnebago Indian agency in South Dakota says Thomas Hill, one of the most prominent men in the Winnebago tribe, is dead, a dozen more violently insane and will probably die and half the tribe is suffering more or less from the effects of eating of large quantities of Mexican mesquite beans as a part of the rites of a new religion that was introduced into the tribe by a visiting member of a Southern tribe some months ago. Agent McSherridge reports that he is unable to check the frenzy or stop the importation from Mexico of the beans, which are said first to drive insane and then cause the death of those eating them.

A CALIFORNIA TRIP

Winter Months Afford Best Opportunity For Merchants and Many Others to Get Away From Business.

(From the Commercial Bulletin, Minneapolis, (Saturday) December 2nd, 1905.)

Hundreds of people who read this paper are planning a trip to the west coast and a stay of a few weeks at least in lower California.

Winter is a vacation season and California the vacation land.

Which way shall we go? That is the question many are asking now. Right here the "Omaha Road" comes forward with a through car service to California unsurpassed in the history of railway travel.

Three times each week a through tourist car leaves the twin cities over the "Omaha" line for Southern California. One goes by Omaha, Ogden, Sacramento, San Francisco and down the coast to Los Angeles. Another goes by Omaha, Kansas City and thence over the Santa Fe through Southern Colorado, and across New Mexico and Arizona to Los Angeles.

A third route, which is already proving decidedly popular, is by Omaha, Ogden, Salt Lake City and down the New San Pedro and Los Angeles road recently constructed and known as the Clark Road. This route takes the tourist through a country full of interesting features and much of it but little known until this railway was built. It runs just below the famous Death Valley region and its equally famous mining camps, crossing parts of Utah, Nevada and California. This is the shortest through car route between the twin cities and lower California.

This gives the tourist choice of three splendid routes, the best through car service, and all at a reasonable price. The traveler has no changes to make after leaving the twin cities. These cars, their appointments and the service in every respect, are all that the most particular and critical travelers can desire. Home comforts are there and, as a successful North Dakota merchant recently said to the writer, "You always meet nice people traveling on the Omaha's tourist sleeping cars."

Tourist cars are the preference of those numerous people who wish to travel comfortably at reasonable cost. Each car has its colored porter in charge. Cars are vestibuled, lighted with gas, carpeted, have comfortable mattresses, regular Pullman blankets, pillows, berth curtains and clean bed linen is furnished each night. These cars are heated in the same manner as first-class Pullman sleepers, except that each heater is supplied with an enclosed oven in which coffee, tea, etc., may be warmed, and adjoining is a sink with hot water faucet.

General Passenger Agent T. W. Teasdale of the Omaha road, who has given the subject of California travel much study and who has been greatly instrumental in bringing the through car service to its present high standard, is much pleased with the splendid endorsements the traveling public is giving the Omaha's fine arrangements for Californians travel. He believes that travel California-ward will show a big increase this season.

If further information is desired call at ticket office, 600 Nicolet Ave., Minneapolis, or 396 Robert Street, (Ryan Hotel), St. Paul.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"HUMAN HEARTS."

Tonight "Human Hearts" will be the offering at the Brainerd opera house.

The story of "Human Hearts" of the simple life of the homely folk of rural Arkansas, deals with the happenings to honest Tom Logan, the village blacksmith. Tom dwells with his parents in a picturesque spot of the Arkansas hills. There he has been pursuing his vocation, living a plain simple life; the mainstay of his aged parents; beloved by all who know him, and respected above his fellows. On a certain unlucky day, there came to the village a beautiful woman, a temptress, unprincipled and black at heart, but with a fascination that proved to be the undoing of poor Tom Logan. He immediately proceeded to fall in love with her, asked her to marry him and she became his wife. Happy in his fancied security, Tom lavished all the affection on the woman, that was possible to an honest heart like his, but it was not returned.

One day there appears on the scene a villain, the former lover of the woman, who commits a cowardly murder and with the assistance of the woman, fastens the crime on Tom, who is tried and convicted for the crime of another. Tom is sentenced to states' prison for life, and the villainous pair congratulate themselves that they have not only gotten rid of him, but have secured immunity from the law for themselves. But Providence has been watching over the blacksmith, and unseen influences are at work to thwart their plan. Humble friends of Tom Logan do not forget him and their endeavors to bring the case to the notice of the governor of Arkansas are finally successful. The villains are unmasked and Tom is proved innocent. The play is a pathetic one with thrilling scenes, but there is a comedy vein running through it which gives the necessary contrast.

Manager Nankeville has provided an adequate stage investiture for the play, and has engaged a good company for its portrayal. Prices $1, 75, 50 and 25c.

HARALD HEIDE TO PLAY HERE

Mr. Harald Heide, a violinist of note from Christiania, Norway, is making a tour of the country and will appear in Brainerd at the Norwegian Danish Lutheran church near the corner of 10th and Oak streets south, on Friday evening, Jan. 19th. Mr. Heide's first appearance in America was at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, where he played before a large audience for the benefit of the New York Surgical Hospital, and met with an enthusiastic reception. He also attracted most favorable attention a week later, Nov. 15, at Wicker Park hall, Chicago, as the chief attraction at the 35th anniversary concert of the Norwegian Singing Society.

Mr. Heide drew for a number of years from the Norwegian government, in recognition of talent, an annuity to be used in foreign travel and study. For some time he pursued his studies under the direction of the famous violin virtuoso Caesar Thomsen, and heard with profit the best music of European musical centers. Upon his return to Norway he gave a series of concerts, and met with the warm approval of both critics and general public.

Elling, the gifted composer, found in him "one who played as though resolved to conquer." Winge, another prominent musician and composer, praises his "pure, noble tone," "firm sweep of the bow, and earnestness of interpretation."

WAS HERE YEARS AGO

George T. Martin, Tenor in Haverly's Minstrels, Worked in Gull River Lumber Mill Twenty Years Ago

George T. Martin, the tenor in the Haverly minstrels, was in Brainerd twenty years ago and he did not recognize the fact until he happened to take note of the Northern Pacific depot. He walked here from Duluth and worked for a time in the Gull River Lumber company mill, piling lumber. Afterwards he went to St. Paul and having a good voice joined a company and has been tramping ever since.

BOGUS RAILWAY STOCK.

Operations of Alleged Forgers Planned on Large Scale.

New York, Jan. 12.—Following the arrest of Samuel Humphreys, a "news-paper writer," on a charge of selling a bogus certificate of 100 shares of the Norfolk and Western Railway company to a dealer in securities in this city, it was learned that 500 of the bogus certificates were printed and that the operations appear to have been planned on a large scale. As only four or five of the certificates have been discovered, and each of them is for 100 shares with an aggregate market value of about $8,000, it is evident that the amount realized by the operators is very large if they have disposed of many of the certificates. The police say that they believe that at least three men had a hand in the transaction.

Expert Ring Blowers.

The Japanese are experts on smoke rings, and it is said in Japan it is considered no uncommon trick to blow three rings of smoke in succession, the second traveling through the first and the third through both. Some stage performers are credited with becoming so expert in smoke blowing that they are not only able to multiply the number of rings thus made, but actually form Japanese characters representing words and sentences. One Japanese juggler, it is declared, proposed to his wife by forming the characters representing his avowal of love through a thin stream of smoke.

HONOR NAME OF ADAM BROWN

Men Who Figured in Early History of Northern Pacific Met in Minneapolis

"GOD BLESS ADAM BROWN"

Was the Toast Drank at This Gathering and He was Referred to Lovingly

There was a gathering at Minneapolis Wednesday night of thirty men who were connected, in various capacities, with the Northern Pacific Railroad in the first stages of its building, prior to 1873 says the Minneapolis Journal. Among them were gray-haired men who, as youngsters, set out across the prairies with their surveying instruments and found the way for that frontier-piercing line; men who followed them with their construction crews and erected grades, built bridges and laid the sleepers and rails in the land of the Indian and buffalo; men who took the first train over the track out into the really "wild and woolly west;" men who built railway stations and roundhouses, and settled the question of the location of towns, and men who shifted from the engineering into the operating department and managed the adventurous little road.

Adam Brown of this city was the first engineer on the road. He received a letter to be present at the gathering but the letter was delayed in some manner and he was unable to attend.

The most remarkable thing about the affair was the illustrations there given of the success with which these men have met in life. One, who was the first brakeman on the Northern Pacific, is a banker with a great international business, who lives at the Waldorf Astoria in New York. Another, a telegraph operator in the little shacks that followed the construction crews on into the west, is now vice president of the Chicago subway company and in complete charge of the construction of that great underground transportation line. A clerk in the headquarters office of the road in those early days is now second vice president of the company. A young man, very short in stature and inclined to corpulency, who waddled along with a surveying party in Montana and Idaho, making their topographical maps, is one of the foremost sketch artists in the United States. An assistant to an engineer is now general superintendent of transportation of the Pennsylvania railroad. Another telegraph operator of those early days is superintendent of the Milwaukee road. Another young man who served in a similar capacity is now a lieutenant of engineers in the United States army and has charge of the construction of the great dam in the Mississippi river at Keokuk, Iowa. This list might be continued through the thirty names—every one of those present has achieved an unusual measure of success.

Some good stories were told and finally was announced:

"Here's a letter from Adam Brown." It was like throwing a bombshell into an enemy's camp. Almost every man was on his feet.

"Adam Brown, God bless him," cried Henry C. Davis, the New York banker, who lives at the Waldorf. Adam Brown is an engineer formerly in the employ of the Northern Pacific, living at Brainerd. He took the first locomotive over the Northern Pacific road. Henry C. Davis was brakeman on that train.

"God bless Adam Brown," shouted another. "He furnished more fun for us than a modern comic opera."

"Adam Brown, you'll remember," said Banker Davis, "was a Dutchman." They all remembered. Brown was a character none could forget. They told a dozen stories about him.

HIS STORY OF CRUSOE.

"Collins," asked Banker Davis of the Chicago subway builder, "you remember Adam Brown's story of Robinson Crusoe?"

"Indeed I do," said Collins. "Tell 'em about it."

"One day at the junction," said Davis, "Adam Brown asked Collins and me if we'd ever read a book called 'Robinson Crusoe.' We said no. That was a lie—we'd both read it. Adam Brown wanted to tell us the story. I'll abridge it somewhat, but this was Adam Brown's story:

"Crusoe wore a fur cap. He was shipwrecked on an island. On a island he was landed somehow, and there he lived all alone. One day he saw footsteps of sand in. To himself he said, 'I am not alone here, no?' So he followed the footsteps and found his man on Tuesday, so he called his man Tuesday."

The laughter was so loud that Davis couldn't finish his story. He said that was what happened to Brown.

But that Adam Brown was loved and esteemed by all his old comrades was attested by the fervor with which he was toasted, and a message was sent to the old man who was unable to be present.

Haverley's Minstrels.

Haverley's Minstrels were at the Brainerd opera house last night. This organization has been in Brainerd for two or three seasons and if the truth were told it would be stated in very plain words that the show has weakened with each succeeding year. The face of Billy Van is missed as an end man and no poorer substitute could be made for such an illustrious character in minstrelsy than when the management chose Billy Pearl, as he is called. His jokes were so bad that he could not awaken his audience except by casting reflections on the size of the crowd, etc., in which he thought he was very clever, but the fact is there are many local men who have been seen in black face who could skin him to death. There were some good voices in the circle and Billy Beard deserved credit for his monologue work. The second part was very good. But really the organization parading under the name of Haverley is a travesty on minstrelsy and it is like taking money away from the baby to have to "cough up" for the show.

Large Tracts of Land Being Transferred Daily on the Cuyuna Range

MUCH ACTIVITY IN THE SPRING

Now Almost an Assured Fact That Another Large Shaft Will be Sunk

There is more and more activity every day in the Cuyuna range matters and large numbers of tracts of land are being transferred. Franklyn Merritt, of Duluth, is in the city today and has closed many deals this time and the time before when he was here.

There is an assurance now that there will be another shaft sunk in the spring on property not far from Brainerd and it is more than likely that there will be another shaft on the Northern Pacific property this side of Deerwood.

W. J. Schwab, of Clear Lake, is interested and arrived this afternoon from the south to close some important deals.

WAS HIS MOTHER'S THROAT.

Washington Lawyer Then Tried to Kill His Family.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 12.—Nels Nelson, a lawyer at Walkerton, during the day killed his mother with a razor, cutting her throat, attempted to kill his wife and two children and then thinking they were dead, killed himself with a revolver.

His mother was slain while trying to protect the wife and children. The wife and children may recover.

Nelson was thirty-five years old and came from Sweden three years ago. He had been brooding over unpaid taxes on his home, amounting to $23, a tax lien having been issued. In his house was found $800 in cash and he was worth more than $3,000.

Nelson attacked his wife first, hitting her on the head with a flatiron. Then he tried to kill his two little girls, four years and one year old respectively.

Mainspring of Life

No One Can be Strong With a Weak Stomach—H. P. Dunn & Co. Tell How it May be Strengthened

The stomach is the mainspring of life. When it is strong and acts perfectly, then the whole system is right, assimilation is perfect, and body and brain are thoroughly nourished.

One may perhaps get temporary relief from stomach troubles by using pepsin, or some other digestant, but this treatment has no curative effect. It does not reach the seat of the trouble and remove the cause.

How much better to use Mi-o-na, which restores lost functions of the whole digestive system, revives flagging nutrition, and aids in the assimilation of food.

Mi-o-na is a pleasant remedy to use, and benefit is seen from almost the first day's treatment. It restores the torpid glands and stimulates the natural digestive secretions. It checks fermentation, stops germ growth, soothes inflammation and cures all troubles, such as headaches, backaches, rheumatic pains, furred tongue, sleeplessness, nervousness and general debility, which are caused by imperfect digestion.

It is the only remedy that is so uniformly successful in the cure of stomach diseases that H. P. Dunn & Co. are willing to give a guarantee with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. They have so much faith in Mi-o-na that they are willing to take all the risk.

Renslow's laundry and when Mr. Renslow saw him said, "Good morning, Mr. Dean," and after he looked up at him said, "Oh, excuse me, I thought you were Mr. Dean." "Well I am," said the stranger. It developed that the man was W. D. Dean, of Duluth, who resembles I. T. Dean very much and the singular part of it is the fact their names are the same. W. D. Dean went down and called on I. T. Dean and they tried to make a relationship, but could not, but spent a few moments together rather happily.

Testimony of Brainerd people proves it.

Here's a Brainerd case: Mrs. S. Brain, of 601 S. 10th St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I could not do otherwise than endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, and time after time I have recommended them to persons suffering from kidney trouble. I learned the value of this remedy through experience. When I first got Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store I was suffering from severe symptoms of kidney complaint. There was a constant dull aching in my back and the kidney secretions were irregular and distressing. From both these causes my rest was broken at night and in the morning I was usually languid and all tired out. Doan's Kidney Pills made a great change in my condition and after continuing the treatment I was so vastly improved that I felt warranted in recommending this remedy through the local papers. I have never changed my mind about Doan's Kidney Pills and have also found that Doan's Ointment is unequalled for itching and bleeding hemorrhoids. Both these preparations should be known to every sufferer."

OPERATION AVOIDED

Remarkable Case of Minneapolis, Minn., Woman Who Was Saved From The Surgeons Knife.

Doctors who had attended Mrs. Martin Cox, 826 Humboldt Ave., N., Minneapolis, in her recent illness declared that her health depended on an operation. She had been suffering from an affection of the liver and kidneys and weakness peculiar to her sex. She was loath to submit to the dreaded operation, she had resigned herself to her fate and was about to consent when a friend advised her to try the wonderful Cooper medicines.

Cigar—5 Cents

A "star" smoke at a "matinee" price.

Good company for the man who usually smokes three-for-a-quarter. The making of "Anna Held" Cigars starts with the growing of the tobacco. Experts know the quality required and how to secure it—not for one lot of cigars but for millions. The several varieties of leaf necessary to produce a smooth, well-balanced smoke undergo delicate, complex and vital processes—hitherto unknown—of fermenting and blending. These processes extract all the original greenness and rankness and develop a rich, even, full-flavored, blended smoke.

Tested in any way you like—flavor, fragrance, evenness, workmanship—the "Anna Held" is a remarkable product of a remarkable system.

SPEECH BY HEYBURN

IN SUPPORT OF HIS BILL CREAT-ING BOARD FOR CONTROL OF CORPORATIONS.

REMAINS ON THE CALENDAR

SENATE DISCUSSES STATUS OF MOROCCAN RESOLUTION IN SECRET SESSION.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Before going into executive session the senate listened to a speech by Mr. Heyburn in support of his bill creating a national board for the control of corporations, in which he denounced Wall street because of its alleged interference with the affairs of the country. He said that when the "street" could not dictate the financial course of the government it was ever ready to threaten disaster and he pleaded for legislation that would rob it of such power for evil. The remainder of the open session was devoted to a discussion of the practice by the senate of sending senate resolutions to the calendar after they have been once under discussion.

Mr. Bacon raised the point that there was no rule requiring such a course and urged that his Moroccan resolution had been improperly placed on the calendar. He also contended that the resolution had not had a day's discussion. The matter was not disposed of in open session.

In secret session the senate discussed the status of Senator Bacon's Moroccan resolution for three hours and in the end it was left on the calendar.

Vice President Fairbanks declared that his course in placing the resolution on the calendar had been the unvarying practice. Senators Teller and Morgan defended the contention of Senator Bacon that the resolution had been placed on the calendar wrongfully.

The effect of the vice president's decision is to leave the resolution on the calendar, where it must remain until taken therefrom by a majority vote of the senate or by unanimous consent. This will prevent its consideration by the senate or by a senate committee.

The senate adjourned until Monday.

SUBPOENA FOR BIGELOW.

Author Summoned to Testify Before
Senate Committee.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The senate committee on inter-oceanic canals has placed in the hands of Sergeant-at-Arms Ransdell a subpoena for Poulter Bigelow, the author and traveler, whose attack on the government of the canal zone and the management of canal affairs was denounced by Secretary Taft in a communication sent to congress by President Roosevelt. Mr. Bigelow is believed to be in New York and can be served in time to have him here next week. The committee's purpose is to let him substantiate his story, if that is possible.

DEBATE ON PHILIPPINE BILL.

Consists Principally of Maneuvering for Campaign Material.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The Philippine tariff debate in the house during the day consisted more of party maneuvering for advantageous campaign material than of discussion of the question at issue.

The tariff was the text of a speech by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, who began the debate, and of an extended reply by Mr. Williams, the minority leader. The speech of Mr. Grosvenor was interspersed with interruptions from Champ Clark, to whom Mr. Grosvenor aimed most of his argument. Mr. Williams outlined again the specific tariff doctrine of the Democratic party and held that the Republican tariff was not as often claimed responsible for the prosperity of the country. To prove this, he cited the prosperity of Canada, Mexico and other countries at the present time and the business depression of these countries during the hard times of 1893.

Mr. Adams of Wisconsin opposed the bill, but advocated a readjustment of the tariff on business principles. Mr. McKinley of California delivered his first speech in the house in favor of the pending measure and pointed a finger of warning toward the growing industries of Japan.

The debate on the bill undoubtedly will close this week and the measure be put on its passage Monday.

Old Officers Again Chosen.

Detroit, Jan. 12.—The Lake Carriers' association in annual session here re-elected the old officers, as follows: President, William Livingstone, Detroit; vice president, J. H. Sheadle, Cleveland; counsel, H. D. Goulder, Cleveland; secretary, G. A. Marr, Cleveland; treasurer, G. P. McKay, Cleveland.

Stock Breeders Elect Officers.

Sioux City, Ia., Jan. 12.—The Interstate Stock Breeders' association in session here elected the following officers: James Walpole, Rock Valley, re-elected president; Alexander McRooth, Paulina, Ia., vice president; F. L. Winkler, Sioux City, secretary; P. E. Held, Hinton, Ia., treasurer.

CHINA IS IN A FERMENT.

Anti-Foreign Sentiment and Political Excitement Exist.

Peking, Jan. 12.—Reports from the south and from Yangtse valley region show the anti-foreign sentiment to be very strong. China undoubtedly is in a ferment of political excitement, but the movement is directed as much against the government as against the foreigners. The government is between two fires. The Young China party is clamoring because reforms are being executed too slowly, while the Conservatives and officials are resisting these efforts.

In spite of the protests of foreigners in Northern China the foreign ministers have not changed their plan for the withdrawal of foreign troops from Chi Li province, the only exception being the legation guards. The ministers believe the Chinese government is both able and determined to protect foreigners in the event of a revolution.

NINE FIREMEN INJURED.

Wall of a Stable Falls on Them in
New York City.

New York, Jan. 10.—Nine firemen were injured, one of them seriously, by a falling wall in a fire of a stable in the heart of the East Side tenement district at night.

More dangerous than the fire itself was the threatening panic and stampede among the occupants of the tenement houses in the neighborhood. At the first flash of flames men and women in the tenements began to throw their belongings, furniture and all, into the streets, endangering the lives of the scores who were running to the scene of the fire.

The blaze was in the densely populated section of Cherry Hill, but was soon extinguished.
